ANNOUNCEMENTS.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of County Court Cerk, subject to the action of the Republican party.

E. E. Johnston.

Perhaps it would be advisable for the U. M. W. of A. to incorporate so as to be able to secure injunctions against the employes of a company for infringements of the peace. This would, perhaps, put a stop to riotous demonstrations calculated to anger union men and incite them to an outbreak, which, of course would be a splendid thing for the non-union side of the question, as, if the union miners were plainly guilty they would lose day. friends faster than leaves fall from the trees. But a union outbreak will never happen. Union men realize that this is a fight that must be carried on steadfastly and resolutely. It is no "Hurrah boys" affair. It is a question | think it is not a woman's place. I do. which means prosperity to a wide number of people. It is not a question of how much the miner is losing now by not being at work, but how much he or his children may lose in the future. It is a fight for the future of the coming generation.

And now it is said the T. C. I. Co. officials are against Sheriff Harris, and would like a change. Why, dear sirs, Mr. Harris has been trying to treat you right. At present union men are kicking because he hasn't taken charge of a greater number of your employes than he has. Like the News he has endeavored to treat you fairly and squarely, and because he couldn't carry out every favor you asked for you are not satisfied and want him removed. Sheriff Harris has done as well as he could, in very trying times, and has treated you with the utmost consideration. In fact, in the judgement of many, more considerately than you deserved. We know of a certain exsheriff of this county who would have an endless procession of arrested parties journeying to Jasper, if he had been in charge, and the same conditions prevailed, and perhaps they might have been from your employes

A certain individual at Whitwell is reported to have remarked recently that "Old man Hill and his son" (referring to the News' publishers) "ought to be driven out of the country." He would not have said this if we had sold our honest opinions for the sake of the few subscriptions he and his friends represented. The News is a free lance, is not controlled by any one, and when we are boycotted so we can't pay 100 cents on the dollar we will shut up this shebang and quit. We will never sell out.

Glad to hear things are quieter in Whitwell, ontside of an occasional spasm from excited individuals. If publishing the true facts in the case will keep things quiet, let's have every outbreak reported, and fasten the guilt on the right parties through the papers, if it is not possible to arrest the parties themselves. This may perhaps, keep down a riot which, under former conditions seemed pending, even to an outsider.

Wonder why they want "to run us out of the country?" Why, for allow- ing to go down to S. T. Tate's. ing people to use the columns of this paper to tell exactly or as nearly as they can how conditions are, of course. Wonder if they thought we would stoop to deception in the matter, or gloss the situation over by saying nothing about it. The News is not built that way.

The injunction against the Whitwell union has been granted at last. If it was so imperatively necessary, why has it taken nearly a year to get it. Judge McConnell refused to permit it to be so sweeping as to include all the United Mine Workers of District 19, which would have been rankest injus-

No towns around here can be cited which possess such a hall, owned and controlled by its citizens.

Isn't it about time for the non-union coal operators to discover that it is to their interests to employ union miners, the men with practical experience in coal digging?

An oath that is not worth taking is not worth breaking. The union miners of Whitwell took an oath, and by the Lord Harry, they don't seem to in any hurry to break it.

I would like to hear from Aunt Lettie again or some of her folks. When it comes to unionism I am a union woman from head to foot and I think it is my business and no one else's. Some I know one woman said she could make her husband go to scabbing if she wanted him to, and after so long a time she made him go to scabbing. That is the way of some short-sighted people. If my husband was to scab I would let him scab and eat his scab grub, but I would leave him and eat union grub the rest of my days. I wouldn't live with a man that had no principles. I am a good union woman like everybody that has got union blood in them.

Will ring off for this time. Good wishes to the News and its readers. Snow Ball.

On Wednesday morning, Oct. 25th, 1905, he was working in a new opening of the mines near his home and between 9 and 10 o'clock a large piece of slate that was thought to weigh 2,000 pounds broke loose over his head and fell on him and mashed him to death. > He has been a seeker of the Lord Jesus for two years and on Saturday, Oct. 21st, 1905, the Lord reached down from His throne in Glory, with His strong arm to take him into eternal life with joy, peace and happiness and on: Sunday morning following when he came into the service of the Lord there was one of the brightest and happiest smiles on his face that ever shone on any face on this earth. He left such comforting words with his friends about his soul's salvation that we all truly believe he is at rest. Dear parents, lift up your voices in praises to the Lord that you have a dear boy who is now resting in that paradise so blessed. If you do not feel able to bear so great a burden of sorrow call upon the Lord Jesus who is always so willing and ready to lend His helping hand unto all who call upon Him for His great help. Brothers and sisters, do not weep over the lost body of your dear brother for there is no weeping that can bring him back to this earth, The Lord needed one more angel amid His shining band and so he thought it best to take one from your hands. Strive the greater every day of your lives to meet him in the world that shall never end, where there will be no more pains or death, no more weeping, no more sorrowing, no more tears, but where all joy, peace and gladness shall be forever. In that world there will be no parting. All who live for the Lord in this life will be gathered to Glory in the morning of joy.

I once had a brother who was loving to me. His face no more on this earth I can see but in that great mansion so bright and so fair, with the glad angels his portion will share. E. LAND, Land's Chapel, Oct. 29, 1905.
